

SHORT BIO

Maria Doukakarou studied Philosophy Pedagogy Psychology at the National and Kapodistrian University of Athens and completed postgraduate and doctoral studies in Social Anthropology at the University of the Aegean. Her research interests include issues of political anthropology and, more recently, migration. She has conducted research on the forms of collective political action and has participated in research programs that aim to create a digital archive of anthropological studies in Greece. Since October 2018 she is the Coordinator of the Observatory for the Refugee and Migration Crisis in the Aegean.